Dear SoACE Colleagues,

The 2010 SoACE Annual Conference Sponsorship Co-Chairs Mary Mahoney and Shelly Garcia Underwood are ready to deal!

This year's conference showdown will be held November 30-December 3 in Dallas, Texas, at The Fairmont Hotel. We strive to provide our membership with a memorable conference experience that offers a diverse mix of professional development, networking opportunities and FUN! With your donations and sponsorship support, SoACE works to organize and present the best conference each year.

There isn't a pot limit; all donations and sponsorships are welcome and most appreciated!

Why should YOU put YOUR chips in?

- Increase visibility for your organization through name recognition— SoACE, through its 700 members, encompasses 15 southern states which includes the highest number of Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs) and Hispanic Serving Institutions (HSIs) and has both 2-year and 4-year colleges/universities as members
- An opportunity to increase awareness of your organization and/or products/services
- Expand your professional network and career opportunities by connecting with a diverse membership

What's on the table?

- Your organization name listed on the SoACE web page and conference page
- Your organization name listed in the conference program on the Sponsor page
- Name recognition amongst employer and career center professionals representing thousands of students and employer HR/college relations individuals

We look forward to having you as a sponsor and as a participant in our annual conference. Please go to <http://soace.org/conference> for more information on sponsorship opportunities! To receive full recognition, we must receive your contribution by Friday, October 15, 2010.

ANTE UP!
